Vs.

Debts Recovery Tribunal and others

.....Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.KUMAR
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BINDAL

Present:- Mr. Anand Chhibbar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. C.S.Pasricha, Advocate for respondents No.3 to 5.

Mr. H.R.Bansal, Advocate for respondent No.6.

Ms. Ritu Bahri, DAG, Haryana for respondent No.7.

M.M.Kumar, J.

The instant petition as per the averment made in para 5 thereof was filed in the peculiar circumstances as the Debts Recovery Appellate Tribunal, New Delhi (for short, 'the Tribunal') was not holding the Court on account of superannuation of its Chairman. It is now conceded position that the Chairman has been appointed and the Tribunal is functioning, therefore, there is no occasion for us to adjudicate upon the matter and the petitioner is relegated to the remedy of appeal. The petitioner is granted ten days' time to approach the Tribunal and till then status-quo order with regard to possession shall be maintained.

The writ petition is disposed of in the manner indicated above.
